IMPROVEMENTS AT THE AGRICULTURAL FAIRthe grounds as to afford more opportunities ing to make. At the late meeting of the FRUIT-OF-THE-LOOM BLEACHED COTTON | Executive Committee held at the White livered and the usual evening prayers were Sulphur Springs it was determined recited. AUBURN BLEACHED COTTON at 12%c. a yard; to rearrange the buildings in the form ANDROSCOGGIN BLEACHED COTTON at of a parallelogram between the grand pavilion and the judges' stand on the race-course. The horse and cattle stalls, sheep and hog pens, and poultry coops will be allowed to remain in their present position, but all other buildings will be moved so as to form the figure described, and in the middle of the vacant space a fountain will be placed. The ring where horses and cattle are shown, established last Fair, saves people the trouble of walking around the horse and cattle stalls and the compact arrangement of the exhibition buildings as proposed will be all necessary to give the accommodations demanded. The race-track will be contracted near the present judges' stand, so as to lessen the sharpness of the turns, but the length of one mile will still be preserved, while the track will be very greatly improved. The Society have just closed a contract for the erection of a grand stand on the site of the old one. It will be a building two hundred and twenty feet long, about forty feet wide, and two stories high. The lower story will be used for dining and refreshments saloons and a bar-room. The upper story will be of amphitheatre shape; will be roofed so as to afford a safe shelter from rain and sun, and will be provided with comfortable seats for about eight or nine hundred persons. An admission fee will be report whether the debt due P. T. George & charged, and those purchasing seats will have a splendid view of the race-truck and for the stock of goods surrendered by the be free from annoyances from the crowd. This building, now being erected under the supervision of Mr. A. L. West, architect, is expected to become very popular, and it is believed will meet a public want and at the same time put some revenue in the treasury of the Society. Letters from other States, received by the secretary, making inquiries about the coming Fair, indicate that there will be a fine exhibition of articles from abroad, and no doubt this will encourage our producers and manufacturers to do their best in the contribution of specimens of their handiwork.

CENTENARY METHODIST CHURCH .- Centenary Methodist church will be closed for improvements after to-morrow. Rev. Dr. Edwards will preach morning and night, as April, 1873, the amount, with interest, paid usual, on to-morrow (Sunday), and, as it is by him, the last service to be held in the church until the lecture room shall be ready for use, he is, of course, desirous that there should be a full attendance of the congregation. The Centenary congregation will worship with the Broad-Street Methodist congregation, beginning with Sunday, September 20th. church by the two congregations the pews will be considered as entirely free. will be considered as entirely free.

The first head, and he fell covered with blood, and month in the Hebrew calendar is the month Nissan, in the fourteenth day of which the him, turned and fled. Dr. Ross was called Passover festival begins, commemorating the in and found that Fitzhugh had suffered a escape of the Hebrews from Egyptian slave- great loss of blood and was very weak, ry and their subsequent organization as a nation. In consequence of this fact Nissan is of his wounds indicated. Day and wife and Fitzhugh were all arrested by Sergeant John the first month of the civil year of the Hebrews, dating from the birth of that people as a nation. The sacred year begins with brews, dating from the birth of that people the month Tishri, which is also called the tice John J. Crutchfield. Holy Month, during which the most sacred festivals of the Hebrews occur. The month Nissan generally occurs during the vernal autumnal equinox. The festival which begun last night being the commencement of this penitential season, the prayers and songs are characterized by great solemnity and sadness. The drapery evening, and, though evidently painful, were and decorations are all of white, symbolical of purity. The great import attached to the day is seen in the names which it bears, the most prominent of them being "The Day of Remembrance," "The Day of Judgment," and "The Day of the Biowing of the Trumpets." This latter appellation has been gained from the fact that the blowing of the trumpet or a ram's horn is one of the principal features of the festival. The object of this most delightful in which to leave the city is to remind the Israelite of the near approach of the great Day of Atonement, when he is to render his account to his Maker, and also--according to an old Hebrew traditioncalling on God to remember the covenant which He made with Abraham. The term 'Day of Judgment" has been given to this festival because of a Rabbinical tradition that on the 1st of Tishri God fixes the des-times of nations and individuals for the coming year, and judges them according to their merits.

The New-Year's Day is distinguished from all the other principal holidays in the prayers set down for the day. These are divided under three beads-the first being prayers that all nations may at an early day join in rendering homage to their Creator the Universe; the second division of prayer a day's stay in the mountains had better is the glorification of the Almighty, enlarg- avail themselves of this chance; it is the last ing upon His omniscence, omnipresence, GROUNDS.-The officers of the State Agri- &c., and under the third head are the cultural Society are actively preparing for prayers for the union of nations unthe next annual exhibition, and, not content der the banner of love and charity, with presenting to the public the largest the cessation of strife and unnatural premium list ever offered, are so arranging wars, and for the brotherhood of man. The weather is now so pleasant that a ride to the country by land or water cannot fail to be highly enjoyable. The autumn, of all the seasons of the year, is unquestionably the and while away a few days in the country. The leaves are fast changing their color, and already the forests of the mountains are beautiful to look upon. It cannot be denied that the numerous excursions and pic-nics of the season which is now drawing so rapidly to a close, have been highly beneficial to the health of those who have taken part in them. A change is at any time a benefit to the mechanic, the merchant, or the lawyer, but especially during the heated term. The health of Richmond has, however, been re> markable during the past summer. The Grass-Widowers' train, Mr. Vliet an nounces, will make its last trip to Staunton this afternoon, leaving Richmond at 4:45 o'clock. Hereafter this train will run only as far west as Gordonsville until next sea son. Those who desire a pleasant ride and until next June or July. Returning, the train will reach Richmond at 9:30 on Monday, September 14th.
